This contract was awarded sole source under FAR 6.302-1(a)(2)(iii) Only One Responsible Source and No Other Supplies or Services will Satisfy Agency Requirements.

This increase and extension is provided to San Jose State University (SJSU), which is the only source with the unique mix and level of experience and knowledge required to support ONR's requirements related to construction, delivery of fully capable ships to the active fleet. Specific experience includes continued and long-term involvement with early AGOR designs and operator selection; operational experience in operating and managing research vessels; high level management experience in University-National Oceanographic Laboratory Systems (UNOLS), and extensive experience in supporting the NAVSEA program of preliminary design, proposal evaluation, detailed design, and construction of AGORs 27 and 28. This modification makes no change to the scope of work.
