IV. Evaluation Information:

1. Evaluation Criteria: A Task Order will be awarded to the responsible offeror whose offer represents the best value to the Government. In order to determine which offeror represents the best overall value, offers for individual task orders will be evaluated on the following factors and subfactors:

- a. Proposed key personnel.
- b. Management Plan and Technical Approach
- c. Past performance on earlier tasks under this and similar contracts
- d. Facilities
- e. Cost control

Factors (a) through (d) are equally weighted. These four technical factors are substantially more important than cost. Although cost is substantially less important than all of the technical factors combined, it will not be ignored. The degree of its importance will increase with the degree of equality of the task order proposals in relation to the other factors on which selection is to be based, or when the cost is so significantly high as to diminish the value of the technical superiority to the Government.

In evaluating past performance (Factor c.) on individual orders, the procedural requirements in FAR 42.15 are not mandatory. Past performance will be based on the Government's subjective evaluation of the Contractor's performance with previous orders, if any, under the contract.

In the evaluation of facilities (Factor d.), the government will consider a close working relationship with ONR program officers, ONR-sponsored performers, and acquisition commands is required, facilities in close proximity to ONR Headquarters are preferred.

2. Award: The Government will award a task order to the responsible offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, cost and other factors considered. The anticipated award date of this order is on or before 02 Jul 2004.
